

Finding Comfort in the Promise of Heaven

Hebrews 13:14 For here we have no lasting city, but we seek the city that is to come.

1 Corinthians 2:9 But, as it is written, "What no eye has seen, nor ear heard, nor the heart of man imagined, what God has prepared for those who love him."

Revelation 22:1-5 Then the angel showed me the river of the water of life, bright as crystal, flowing from the throne of God and of the Lamb through the middle of the street of the city; also, on either side of the river, the tree of life with its twelve kinds of fruit, yielding its fruit each month. The leaves of the tree were for the healing of the nations. No longer will there be anything accursed, but the throne of God and of the Lamb will be in it, and his servants will worship him. They will see his face, and his name will be on their foreheads. And night will be no more. They will need no light of lamp or sun, for the Lord God will be their light, and they will reign forever and ever.

Do you ever daydream about what heaven will be like? Perhaps if we spent more time trying to imagine all the amazing things God is preparing for us, we would not be so attached to this life. Perhaps we would be more eager to ready ourselves for being in God's presence. Perhaps we would make sure we told more people about Jesus so that they too could join us in heaven some day.

Prayer: God, help me to dream of heaven. Help me to desire You and heaven more than I desire life on this fallen earth. Thank you for preparing a home for me with You. Amen.
